

Pet Insurance

If you are considering getting pet insurance, we recommend doing so as soon as possible! Accidents and illness can happen at any time and age. The companies will provide free quotes and they will be able to provide detailed information on coverage.

Below are some different companies and general aspects to consider when choosing an insurance company for your pet.

Pawlicy Advisor is a company who helps provide recommendations and provides comparisons of different insurance companies for pet parents.

You can visit their website at pawlicy.com

Some things to look for when considering a company:

Accident/illness/wellness coverage	Waiting periods	What is/is not covered
If pre-existing conditions can be considered "cured"	Reimbursement rate	Deductibles – amount and if they are per incident or annual
If there is a maximum yearly payout	Lifetime limit on payouts	How claims are reimbursed